

RULES AND INFORMATION
2008-2009 District 2-E1 Lions Queen Contest
District Convention, Eastland, Texas

1. Contestants and the club sponsor will be ask to arrive in Eastland for the District Convention Saturday April 4, 2009 in time for a briefing by the Contest Chairman at 11:00 AM in the First Baptist Church Family Life Center. The contestants will attend a luncheon in the same building following the briefing.
2. The contestant's dress for the briefing and lunch will be Sunday attire or pants suits. Reserved seating will be provided in the Family Life Center Dining area for the Queen contestants. Each contestant will be introduced by a sponsoring club member immediately following lunch; then dismissed as a group to meet with the Queen Contest Chairman for orientation and preliminary judging by the judges at the First Baptist Church Family Life Center. Sponsors and/or parents are not allowed in judging room.
3. Following the interviews by the judges, the contestants will rehearse for the pageant.
4. The contestants will be dismissed for leisure time and time for dressing in formal attire immediately following the rehearsals. Dressing rooms will be available in the church for those contestants who do not have accommodations in the motel. The contestants will assemble for the evening banquet at 7:00 PM and sit together in reserved seats. They will leave the room immediately following the meal and reassemble in an assigned space.
5. They will make their parade walk individually as their name is called and they will be introduced by the MC and be judged by the judges. They will receive a final question by the MC and after their response they will be seated in their reserved seats.
6. The judges will retire from the room to assigned space to tabulate the ballots while other Youth Contest winners are announced. After ballots have been tabulated, the judges will return to the room with sealed envelopes noting on each envelope the "Queen", "1st Runner-Up", & "2nd Runner-Up" and pass them to the MC.
7. To be eligible for judging the contestant must attend the banquet Saturday evening at 7:00 PM where final judging will occur, the contest results will be announced and the winner crowned District 2E-1 Queen for 2008-2009. The program will end at approximately 9:30 PM.
8. There is no entry fee for the contest and every District 2E-1 club in good standing is eligible to enter a contestant.
9. Contestants must be full-time high school students, classified as either juniors or seniors. They must reside in the area of the sponsoring club, be single, never have been married, and not over twenty years of age by July 1, 2009.
10. The contestant must wear a formal evening dress for the Queen Pageant during the Saturday evening banquet.
